Application for Exemption from the Shared Responsibility Payment for Individuals who are Unable to afford Coverage and are in Certain States with a State Based Marketplace

THINGS TO KNOW

Use this application to apply for an exemption from the shared responsibility payment

- Starting in 2014, every person needs to have health insurance or make a payment on their federal income tax return called the "shared responsibility payment."
- Some people are exempt from making this payment. This application includes one category of exemption, and you'll see other categories when you file your federal income tax return.
- You don't need to ask for an exemption if you're not going to file a federal income tax return because your income is below the filing threshold. If you aren't sure, you may want to ask for an exemption.

Who can use this application?

- Use this application if your state has its own Marketplace. Visit HealthCare.gov, or call 1-800-318-2596 to see if your state has its own Marketplace. TTY users should call 1-855-889-4325.
- Use this application if you're unable to afford coverage. If you get this exemption, you may be able to buy catastrophic coverage.
- Use this application to ask for an exemption for months in the future. If you want this exemption for a whole calendar year, you need to request it before the year starts. You can also claim an exemption on your federal income tax return if you're unable to afford coverage.
- You can use one application to ask for this exemption for more than one person in your tax household.

What you need to apply

- Social Security numbers (SSNs), if you have them.
- Employer and income information for everyone in your family (for example, from pay stubs, W-2 forms, or wage and tax statements).
- Information about any job-related health insurance available to your family.
- Proof of your yearly income for 2014. See page 6 for examples of documents you can send.

Why do we ask for this information?

We ask for Social Security numbers and other information to make sure your exemption is counted when you file your federal income tax return. We'll keep all the information you give private and secure, as required by law. To view the Privacy Act Statement, go to HealthCare.gov or see instructions.

What happens next?

Send your complete, signed application to the address on page 5. We'll follow-up with you within 1–2 weeks and let you know if we need additional information. If you get this exemption, we'll give you an Exemption Certificate Number that you'll put on your federal income tax return. If you don't hear from us, visit HealthCare.gov, or call the Health Insurance Marketplace Help Center at 1-800-318-2596. TTY users should call 1-855-889-4325.

STEP 3 Lowest Cost Marketplace Plan

For anyone who is applying for this exemption who isn't offered health coverage through a job, including a spouse or parent's job, your ability to get this exemption is based on the cost of the lowest-cost bronze plan that is available through your state's Marketplace, after applying any tax credits you can get.

This information is only available through your state's Marketplace.

So, if anyone answered "No" to question 12 above—meaning that they aren't offered health coverage through a job—we need you to submit an application for health insurance to your state's Marketplace, complete the process, and send us 2 things:

1. A copy of the eligibility notice from your state's Marketplace that shows your maximum premium tax credit.
2. A copy of the screen from your Marketplace's plan comparison tool that shows the premium of the lowest-cost bronze plan available to everyone who is requesting this exemption. If there isn't a single bronze plan that covers everyone in your tax household who is requesting an exemption, send us the screens showing the lowest-cost bronze plans that add together to have the lowest cost for everyone.

If you need help locating this information, you can call your state's Marketplace. The phone numbers are listed below:

State	Phone number
California	1-800-300-1506

STEP 4 Read & sign this application.

- I'm signing this application under penalty of perjury, which means I've given true answers to all the questions on this form to the best of my knowledge. I know that I may be subject to penalties under federal law if I give false and or untrue information.
- I know that under federal law, discrimination isn't permitted on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, or disability. I can file a complaint of discrimination by visiting www.hhs.gov/ocr/office/file.

We need this information to check your eligibility for an exemption if you choose to apply. We'll check your answers using information in our electronic databases and databases from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and/or a consumer reporting agency. If the information doesn't match, we may ask you to send us proof.

What should I do if I think the results of my application are wrong?
If you don't agree with the results of your exemption application, you can ask for an appeal. Below is important information to consider when requesting an appeal:

- The Health Insurance Marketplace must receive your appeal request within 90 days of the date of the notice of the application results.
- You can have someone request or participate in your appeal if you want to. That person can be a friend, relative, lawyer, or other individual. Or, you can request and participate in your appeal on your own.
- The outcome of an appeal could change the eligibility of other members of your household.

To appeal the results of your exemption application, call 1-800-318-2596. TTY users should call 1-855-889-4325. You can also mail an appeal request form or your own letter requesting an appeal to Health Insurance Marketplace – Exemption Processing, 465 Industrial Blvd., London, KY 40741.
